CODE OF CONDUCT FOR ELECTIONS

1. Candidates are permitted to circulate their bio-data and proposals for the enhancement of the Club. However, any distributed material must not contain derogatory remarks, criticism against the Club, or personal allegations against any member. False, misleading, or baseless claims concerning the Club or its management may lead to severe disciplinary action, including expulsion.
2. Candidates and Club members are prohibited from engaging with the press, social media, or publishing any material related to the Club or its elections that includes the Club's logo or references of any member of the management.
3. Candidates must refrain from making commitments in their circulars or manifestos regarding amendments to the Constitution, Club rules and regulations, or financial matters.
4. The display of placards or boards by candidates is strictly prohibited within the Club premises or anywhere within a 200-meter radius of the Club.
5. Canvassing within Club buildings is not allowed on the election day during voting hours.
6. Any violation of the above code may result in the disqualification of the candidate from contesting the elections.
